Principal's Report - January 16

November
Metis Jigging

Report Cards and Parent - Teacher interviews

December was very busy with Christmas Concert - Ms. Carlstad put together an excellent program and all of the staff helped out the the students worked hard to make it a success

Milk program is up and running but we have had a few snags with deliveries.

Hot lunches seem to be going very smoothly

Hire 4 EAs through Jordan's Principle in December

Came back to cold temperatures and 3 days of no buses. Attendance was low but we were able to use the time to accomplish things.

Grade 1 - 3 literacy program will begin in February - goal is to meet each student where they are. Six classes and the students will be grouped by need. Ten adults in place to support it.
